

them, and other men who were impugned at various parts of his book as neurological and pathological killers of foreign nationals, as well as endangerment of fellow soldiers.

Accordingly, SFA will assist these libeled soldiers obtain counsel, obtaining true statements (already we have more than 20) of the duty and activities that contradict the fantasies of Marvin, and will do whatever we legally are permitted to do in defending the honor of Special Forces, the CIA, and the memories of those of our brethren who have made the ultimate sacrifice in upholding the honor and traditions of our proud individual units and our nation. The next communication will be from the attorney for those men named in the Secret Life of Dan Marvin.
