

into Cambodia, nor to send troops into Cambodia as alleged by Marvin. Furthermore, he was not aware that Marvin was claiming that such had occurred until the publication of "Expendable Elite". In his book, Marvin has accused Tuttle of issuing unlawful orders to Marvin, of conspiring with Marvin to violate international law, standing general orders, and the Uniform Code of Military Justice.

10. Raymond J. Johnson is a citizen and resident of the State of North Carolina. He was a sergeant and served under the command of Captain Daniel Marvin. He was the Sgt. Johnson to whom Defendant Marvin referred in his book, "Expendable Elite." In the book, Sgt. Johnson was alleged to have committed various violations of his oath to his country, including several violations of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, sedition against his country, treason, failure to obey a direct order, and violating international law and the standing general orders of the Departments of Defense and Army not to cross over into or fire weapons into a friendly nation, Cambodia.

11. Plaintiff George H. Kuchen is a citizen and resident of the State of North Carolina. Plaintiff Kuchen was a Medical Sergeant assigned to Detachment A-424 during the period between November 1965 to March 1966, and was under the command of Captain Marvin. He is the Sgt. Kuchen to whom Defendant Marvin referred in his book "Expendable Elite". In the book, Sgt. Kuchen is alleged to have conspired and committed various violations of his oath to his country, including several violations of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, sedition against his country, treason, failure to obey a direct order, and violating international law and the standing general orders of the Departments of Defense and Army not to cross over into or fire weapons into a friendly nation, Cambodia.

12. Plaintiff Richard E. Sirois is a citizen and resident of the State of California. He was a Medical Sergeant assigned to Detachment A-424 during the period between March 1966 and July 1966, and was under the command of Captain Marvin. He is the Sgt. Sirois to whom Defendant Marvin referred in his book "Expendable Elite". In the book, Sgt. Sirois is alleged to have conspired and committed various violations of his oath to his country, including several violations of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, sedition against his country, treason, failure to obey a direct order, and violating international